Dear Colleagues,

Over the years, the domain of Roga Nidana education has witnessed significant evolution—both in theoretical depth and clinical relevance. In today's dynamic academic landscape, the expectations of modern learners demand innovative, engaging, and application-oriented approaches to teaching.

In response to this paradigm shift, we are delighted to invite you to "Nidana Manjari", an exclusive 6-days Continuing Medical Education (CME) program meticulously designed for educators in Roga Nidana. This enriching academic gathering aims to provide updated insights, refined teaching methodologies, and contemporary diagnostic perspectives, all aligned with the evolving needs of Ayurvedic education.

Hosted by the Postgraduate Department of Roga Nidana at the prestigious National Institute of Ayurveda, Jaipur, this program is scheduled from 2nd to 7th August 2025.

Conceptualized under the guidance of the RAV CME initiative, this program aspires to foster knowledge exchange through sessions led by renowned experts and experienced academicians in the field. Their collective wisdom and clinical acumen will serve as the cornerstone of this scientific event.

We look forward to your enthusiastic participation in this thought-provoking and transformative academic experience.

Join us in shaping the future of Ayurvedic diagnostics.
